My dear Roy:

I am sure that we are agreed in evaluating the book, Evangelism, as one of the great contributions in which the Ministerial Association had a part back in those days. You know what it did with men in the Columbia Union who came face-to-face with the clear, unequivocal statements of the Spirit of Prophecy on the Deity of Christ, personality of the Holy Spirit, the Trinity, and the like. They either had to lay down their arms and accept those statements, or else they had to reject the Spirit of Prophecy.

~~I know that you and Miss Kleiser and I had considerable~~ to do with the selection of these things under the encouragement of men like Elder Branson who felt that the earlier concept of the White Estate brethren on this book on Evangelism was not adequate.

Would you be good enough to dictate to your secretary a little statement based upon your knowledge and memory of this part that was played and the effect that it had.

May I thank you for this help.

Most sincerely yours,

L. E. Froom
