Elder W. A. Calcord, a very capable religious liberty secretary and a keen mind, was the one who assembled the original Bible Readings about 1914, and he was the one who put in that heretical note.

One must understand the past to see why and how that could be. Many had held that view through the years. The transition from error to truth was gradual. But I am glad to say Mrs. White never once in her writings through our early decades fell to the pitfall of error on this point. She was divinely guided.

I am glad to know that an attempt will be made to replace the erroneous copies of Drama in the public libraries with the correct presentation.

...Our doctrines divided themselves into two categories—our specifications of the third angel's message (Sabbath, Sanctuary, conditional immortality, etc.) and eternal verities—the Deity of Christ, the Trinity, the personality of the Holy Spirit, etc., upon which there was divided view and over which there was conflicting opinions, not only for years but for decades.

Thank God these things have been rectified..."
