

Walter R. Martin to
L.E. Froom

May 20, 1968.

[excerpt]

You are correct in surmising that I have been traveling, therefore, I just haven't had the time to give the attention to your material on the Deity of Christ until last week. I find it very good and thorough, and up to the general standard of excellence that one has come to expect from you over the years.

As you know, I don't concur with the position that Michael is the title for Christ in His pre-incarnate existence, but apart from this, I find the Trinitarian theology of Adventism, particularly its repudiation of the doctrine of the Eternal generation of the Son, most compatible with my own.

I do hope to be the recipient of another of your efforts in the future, and can only tell you that both Elaine and myself join in remembering you in our prayers before the throne of grace. Please be assured that I have not 'shoved you out beyond the pale of friendship and fellowship in the Lord', indeed, my contacts with the brethren (R.A. Anderson, T. E. Unruh, and W. E. Read) were high-points in my own Christian experience.

With warmest affection and fraternal regards in our Savior.

Walter R. Martin.
