Mrs. E. G. White,

Banks Terrace,

Wellington, New Zealand.

Dear Sister White:

The new book concerning which we have had some correspondence, is just issued. I do not know how much use you desire to make of it, but will send you by this mail six copies.

I should have been glad to consult with you from time to time with reference to the matter in this book, but not being able to do so, I have tried to use my best judgment in the matter. I feel sure that it will be a very great help to us in our educational work, and shall make strenuous efforts to place it in the hands of all our teachers, and then to secure for it a general circulation among our brethren and sisters. I have tried to insert such matter as would make it just as valuable to the parent as to the teacher.

I have been greatly interested and profited in studying this matter, as I have been getting the book into print, and I feel sure that it will exert a marked influence upon our general educational work.

I should be glad to hear from you with criticisms and suggestions with reference to a second edition, if it should become necessary to print one. We have printed two thousand copies. Nothing was said in our correspondence about royalty, and I should be glad to know your mind on this point. We have fixed the price of the book at 50 cents, as we desire to make it just as low as possible in order to secure a large circulation.

Hoping that I may hear from you in due time, I remain, with kind regards,

Yours very truly,

H. H. Prescott
